November 2016 Newsletter

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old: age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them."

~ Laurence Binyon (Ode of Remembrance)

Upcoming Events

Salute to Veterans, November 5, 2016

This year, we are having an outing to BC Place Stadium by Skytrain to participate in a Salute to our Veterans at a BC Lions football game. We will take the Skytrain downtown to BC Place Stadium where we get to watch the BC Lions for the first half of the football game. Then, we all participate in a Salute to Veterans on the field at the half time show. After that, we finish watching the game and Skytrain back home. It should be an exciting day!!

The Poppy and Remembrance Day

The red remembrance poppy has become a familiar emblem of Remembrance Day due to the poem "In Flanders Fields" written by Canadian physician Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae.

After reading the poem, Moina Michael, a professor at the University of Georgia, wrote the poem, "We Shall Remember," and swore to wear a red poppy on the anniversary. The custom spread to Europe and the countries of the British Empire and Commonwealth within three years.

Poppies were worn for the first time at the 1921 anniversary ceremony. At first real poppies were worn. These poppies bloomed across some of the worst battlefields of Flanders in World War I; their brilliant red colour became a symbol for the blood spilled in the war.

Remembrance Day

The eleventh day, of the eleventh month, at the eleventh hour...

Here in Richmond, and in more than 2,000 cities, towns and villages across Canada, we will come together at cenotaphs and memorials...

... To Remember!!!!

We remember those who served our country in times of need.

We remember the service and the sacrifices of more than one and a half million Canadians:
Sailors, Soldiers, Aircrew, and Merchant Sea Men.

We stop to think how much that Canadian families have sacrificed, while their loved ones served overseas to protect our interests.

As we stand here today, in peace and in safety, we remember those who have served us and sacrificed for us.

Those who are serving at home and abroad today...

We thank you!!

Those who have served – including those who are here with us today...

We thank you!!

Those who have served and never returned...

We thank you!!

We salute you!!

We will always remember you!!
